

Maker of own destiny

Braved to cross pervasive discrimination

Moved to school to fulfill my aspiration

Joined other hands to dismantle boozing paradise

Got fenced school to ward off animals roaming to be wise

Unfettered shackle of child marriage

People call me now Lodo, my dear, to bestow courage

I know the journey is full of hurdle and not smooth

Unflinching faith of victory is pushing me to move

School Forums provides a platform to children to express their voices. More than 3200 children are associated with the School Forums under the umbrella of Child Rights Observatory, Madhya Pradesh.
